OVATION TO BRYAN.

Vast Multitude Greet the Nebraskan at the Carnival.

THOUSANDS SEE HIM.

He Holds the People Spellbound and Imparts to Them His Ideas of Democracy--He Is Decidedly Against Imperialism.

Dallas, Oct. 3.—Never before in the history of Texas has a man ever spoke to such a crowd as that which greeted William J. Bryan at the fair grounds last night. The grand stand of the race track ordinarily seats 4500 persons and this was crowded to its utmost capacity. Under the grand stand there is room for 2000 more, the race course was even occupied and outside were thousands who could get no nearer. It is estimated that 15,000 people gathered to hear Bryan.

There were greyheaded men, young men and boys, young women and girls, Democrats, Republicans, Populists, and men of every political complexion, and persons from every state in the union. They were here not to see the great Texas state fair, but to hear the renowned Nebraskan speak, and they heard him.

Every word uttered by that great orator was audible far beyond that of ordinary man and he held his audience spellbound for more than one and a half hours, and they were still willing to hear him and appreciated his speech and drank his sayings with content and decision.

Many a time during his speech was he compelled to suspend and await the calming of the multitude, and many times did he use arguments that convinced his hearers that he was the greatest living American statesman. So plain did he make his arguments that even a mere child could understand, still at the same time the way in which he delivered his remarks to his hearers was of oratorical design of which Bryan only can give.

His address was to workingmen, and they were there to hear him and many of them, although of a different political complexion, went away thinking as the Nebraskan believed.

His speech was out of the ordinary, speaking principally of matters pertaining to labor, but those who have heard him before say that it was the best they ever heard.

There was some delay in Mr. Bryan reaching the grand stand after the torch-light procession down town. The crowd became impatient and to satisfy the great multitude Congressman William Sulzer of New York, was introduced and made a splendid address. He had not progressed far when Mr. Bryan came in and of course was compelled to cease until the applause subsided.

Congressman Sulzer is a Bryan Democrat, and the only congressman in New York state elected on the Chicago platform. He made an extra fine address, but so eager were the crowd to hear Mr. Bryan that they actually acted rude and two or three times plainly asked him to conclude his address.

The majority saw how they were treating an invited guest and begged him to go on. He began to warm up in his talk and soon had the crowd at his command, and when he finished he was asked to speak longer.

Mr. Bryan began his speech by taking up the trusts and made it plain to the workingmen that his interest lay in making a vigorous fight against them.

He discussed every feature of trusts and combination and said he could not agree with many that some trusts were good for the country. He placed all upon an equal footing, and scored Delaware and New Jersey for exacting legislation so that they can be formed in those states under the title of corporations and there extend their infamous dealings in every state in the union.

He contended the corraling of trusts was a gigantic undertaking, one which the Democratic party will have to deal with in the next presidential campaign and which alone it must subdue, if subdued at all.

He said the only successful way he knew of to obliterate them would be by law through congress depriving them of operation except in the state in which they were chartered, and this alone at this time was the only remedy.

He took up the Chicago platform and said that there was not a change necessary in any plank, but that two planks should be added—one against the trusts and the other against imperialism.

He then touched upon the standing army as it was today, and said if 100,000 men were kept under arms, as was being done at present, that it would be the greatest mistake of the land.

He here referred to every country in the eastern hemisphere as a victim of militarism, and especially referred to France and the Dreyfus case. He said if the army was kept at 100,000 men that ere long we would be in a likewise predicament.

He concluded his speech on imperialism and made a forcible argument against retaining the Philippines. He charged the greed of a chosen few was at the back of the scheme and said there was neither glory nor money in keeping them and that they should be returned to the natives with a warning to all kingdoms to keep hands off.

Mr. Bryan closed his address with an appeal to Democrats not to assist the Republicans in saddling an imperial policy upon this country, and then if such does come, they can go down with a clear conscience and conviction that they contributed no hand in crushing to earth a little weak nation.

TARVIN OF KENTUCKY.

He Makes a Ringing Democratic Speech at the Carnival.

Dallas, Oct. 3.—The Democratic carnival's last day at the race track here was a "hummer." Fully as many people packed in and around the grand stand as that of last night and if there was any change in the crowd it was larger.

By 9:30 o'clock the grand stand at the fair was comfortably filled and a constant stream of people was coming. The delay in the time for speaking to begin served to increase the people who wanted to hear the great statesman from Nebraska.

Hon. James P. Tarvin of Kentucky was introduced to the audience and after some confusion got the attention of the crowd and held it until through.

Mr. Tarvin dwelt at considerable length on the Democratic party and the Chicago platform, and he declared the Democratic party alone stood by the people and especially the workingmen. Then he jumped on trusts, McKinley and gold Democrats, and they were given a roast in a scathing way, still in a pleasant manner.

In concluding his speech he said: "The law demonetizing silver in 1873 was passed for the purpose of further enriching those whose capital in life consisted of money, at the expense of those whose capital in life consisted of labor. The protective tariff laws were enacted for the purpose enriching those in certain lines of business at the expense and cost of the consumer who has to buy the necessities of life. The laws providing for the payment of United States bonds in cash worth double the value of greenbacks for which the bonds were bought, were passed for the purpose of paying the bondholders two dollars for every one they had loaned the government and thereby enriching the bondholders, and all these dollars had to be paid by those whose labor created them."

"The Republican party of the United States stands today as the tool and machine and the representative of the money power, trusts and corporate interests of the United States. It is dominated by Hanna, its figurehead is McKinley, and its principal ornaments are Griggs, Clapp, Eagan, Corbin and Alger with the demigog Roosevelt as a side-show. The Democratic party of the United States stands now as the representative of the labor and producer of the land, of the common and obscure people of the United States, of the doctrine that every man is entitled to the benefit of his own labor and to no more. The Democratic party of this country now stands committed to the Chicago platform of 1896. In all human probability it will adopt the platform in 1900, and as for me, I would be glad to see added to it a declaration in favor of municipal ownership, of municipal utilities, a declaration in favor of the election of United States senators and United States judges by the people and a declaration in favor of the abolishment of the life tenure of office in case of United States judges. It will declare against the acts of President McKinley in the Philippines, because imperialism, the gold standard, and the trust are close akin. If the Democratic organization pursues this course, and again nominates Bryan for the presidency, I do not believe there is money enough in the world to bring about his defeat. But if the Democratic party departs from the principles or any of the principles underlying the Chicago platform of 1896, I believe it will be the third in the race when the votes are counted at the November election in 1900. I believe the common people will support that organization as long as it stands representative of them and their interests, and I believe they will abandon it as soon as it ceases to stand. I believe that they understand that the man is greater than the party, and that the party ought to be the servant and not the master."

Then the man whom the people wanted to hear was introduced and from the very start Mr. Bryan was given an ovation.

Mr. Bryan's speech was along the lines of the one delivered last night, but decidedly more political. He raked the trusts, defined the silver issue, denounced a large standing army, riddled the Republican party, told of the evils of imperialism and warned Democrats to do their duty so the victory would be theirs in 1900.

Among the other noted Democrats that will deliver addresses are Congressman Shackelford, who was elected as the late Congressman Bland's successor; Congressman Dougherty of Missouri, Congressman McKee of Arkansas, Col. Johnson of Kansas, Senator Berry of Arkansas, Congressman Benton of Missouri and O. H. P. Belmont of New York.

DEWEY IS THE IDOL.

He Is Given a Welcome at Washington Excelled by None.

IS HONORED BY ALL.

The President Receives Him at the White House and Then He Reviews the Parade Arranged in His Honor.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The home coming of Admiral George Dewey—for henceforth the national capital is to be his home—was made the occasion for the greatest tribute ever paid by Washington to any individual. After the preliminary welcome in New York, itself unsurpassed in its kind, it remained for the highest and greatest in the official world to hold out the hand of greeting to the famous admiral, and to join with the people who are to be his fellow citizens in bidding him welcome.
The citizens had made every preparation to make the occasion worthy of their hero. The decorations were elaborate. Pennsylvania avenue was one mass of colored bunting along the entire line of march from the station to the White House, and not content with this, few private citizens failed to make some display of color on their residences.

Unique designs in fairy lamps dotted the horizon, great searchlights threw broad beams of bright light across the blue sky of a clear October evening, and the stately capitol stood revealed in its queenly beauty in the powerful rays of

THE DEWEY SWORD.

many concentrated lights. The same device was used effectively in the case of other public buildings which stood within the range of vision of the distinguished party which stood to review the great throng of people which passed slowly along beneath the prow of the white Olympia which projected in bold relief from the stand at head of Pennsylvania avenue, whereon stood Dewey, the central figure of the demonstration.
On the facade of the newly completed government postoffice building flamed forth two inscriptions set in electric points, the one reciting the famous message of the president directing Dewey, ten thousand miles away in the far east, to go forth to destroy the Spanish fleet, and the other setting out the famous admiral's direction to the lamented Gridley: "You may fire when ready, Gridley," which marked an epoch in the history of the United States.

A number of civic organizations paraded before him, besides tens of thousands of non-organized citizens, and in a roar of cannon, rockets and the blaze of red fire and the thunderous cheering of the populace and the warm greeting of the head of the nation, Dewey came to a welcome such as has not been here hitherto.

All along the route from New York to Washington Dewey was given an ovation, such as kings alone would envy.
When he reached Washington the climax was reached.

Crowds greeted him as has never greeted a human being in the national capital, not excepting any inauguration of any president.

Dewey was driven to the White House where he was received by President and Mrs. McKinley, the cabinet and other distinguished guests, and after this he was taken to the reviewing stand to see the parade in his honor.

Admiral Dewey gave frequent acknowledgments to the cheers for him and quitted his place early, and with the president, followed by the members of the cabinet, left the stand. It was 9:10 o'clock when the fatigued recipient of the day's demonstration reached the residence of Mrs. Washington McLean, mother of the Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, on K street. He was accompanied by Chairman Moses, his two aides, Lieutenant Brumby and his son, George Dewey, arriving at the same time. Mrs. McLean welcomed the admiral and turned over the house to him for his house during his stay in Washington.

Presently the people surged in on all sides. A band came up and serenaded the admiral, the crowd cheered and finally Admiral Dewey came to a window and bowed his acknowledgment. Cries of "speech, speech," were heard on all sides but met with no response. Luncheon was served by 9:30 and then the admiral retired.

Elaborate exercises took place this afternoon in presenting the sword to Admiral Dewey, voted to him by congress.

TOWN WIPED OUT.

Every Business House in an Arkansas Town Destroyed by Fire.

Texarkana, Tex., Oct. 3.—DeQueen, a flourishing town on the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railroad, 30 miles north of Texarkana, has been wiped off the map by fire. Fifty-four business houses, including banks and hotels were destroyed. The fire started in a small restaurant and raged until it swept five blocks. It burned everything in its path. The loss is estimated between $350,000 and $400,000. The insurance will not exceed $15,000.

The following is a list of the heaviest losers:

Burt Johnson, wholesale feed house; Citizens' bank; William Allen, drygoods and groceries; William Davis, drygoods and groceries; W. C. McKean, drygoods and groceries; Kirk Bros., drygoods and groceries; Lambright Bros., drygoods and groceries; Mrs. Emma Welcome, millinery; W. E. Hicks, drygoods; Finney Dry Goods company; Williamson Bros., general merchandise; Cone & Co., hardware; McGee & Hurt, drugs; C. D.
Barton, furniture; T. A. Vallentine, groceries; Commercial hotel; Silver Moon hotel; Deperse hotel; Henry & Morris, saloon; Morrison & Hall, saloon; Berry Aiken, saloon; De Queen Bee, newspaper; two barber shops and 30 small stores, eating houses, fruit stands, etc., were also destroyed.

Big Order for Canned Goods.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—It is reported here that the British government has placed large orders for canned meat and tinned fruit with some Chicago large packing concerns. An official of one of the large packing companies, who did not wish to be quoted, said it was understood that one firm had secured a large contract with the English government for the shipment of canned meats with which to supply the army in The Transvaal. Officials of other packing companies are loath to impart any details, stating that so far as they and their companies are concerned the matter is simply a rumor. It is said the contract was let through a London branch of the house concerned, and it calls for the largest shipment of canned meats ever exported from this country.

War on Lumber Dealers.

Austin, Oct. 3.—The indictment of a number of the wealthiest and most prominent lumbermen in Texas by the grand jury of Dallas county on the charge of being members of the so-called lumber trust is only a forerunner of a concerted effort that is to be made in a number of other counties of the state to bring indictments against lumber dealers for being in the alleged combine to control the price of lumber. It is reported that the attorney general will assist in the prosecution of these cases.
The suits will have a serious effect on the extensive lumber mill interests of east Texas.

Forty-three Horses Perish.

Colorado Springs, Oct. 3.—The El Paso Livery and Feed stable at Maniton was destroyed by fire. It was a huge 3-story frame, probably the largest in Colorado. It was filled with hay, buggies and boarding horses. Of the latter, 43, including several thoroughbreds, perished with the building. The timely arrival of the Colorado Springs and Colorado City fire departments saved the Barker House and the business portion of the town. Loss about $10,000; partially insured.

More Union Miners in Jail.

Cartersville, Ills., Oct. 3.—Three more arrests have been made here in connection with the recent riots. Deputy United States Marshal Dowell arrested John Kelly, William McIntosh and Dick Lander for violating an injunction of the Federal court. They were taken to Springfield to answer to the charge. So far only union miners have been arrested. It is claimed that warrants for the arrest of 45 more citizens have been issued.

Chinese Disturbed.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The Chinese colony in this city are considerably excited over the fact that large placards, containing revolutionary proclamation, are posted in China-Town. The document appeal in behalf of the deposed Emperor Kuang Hsu, and called for aid to dethrone the dwogar empress.
It is signed by Kaing Yn Wei, one of the ex-emperor's confidential advisors, and a close friend.

Serious Coal Strike.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Oct. 3.—The most serious strike in the history of Webster county has begun at the coal mines.
Every mine in the district is closed down with 400 workers idle. One serious result of the labor trouble is the coal famine which it has caused. The local schools are closed and all factories are running short of fuel and may have to suspend operations.

To Be Admitted to the Bar.

Springfield, Ills., Oct. 3.—More than 300 applicants for admittance to the bar of Illinois will be examined by the state board of law examiners in this city, commencing today. This is the largest class that ever came before the board. The examination will be conducted in representative hall.

Demand for Captain Carter.

New York, Oct. 3.—A representative of the law firm of Kellogg, Rose & Smith have served a writ of habeas corpus on Captain Roberts, commandant of Governor's island, demanding that Captain Oberlin M. Carter, be produced in court before Judge Lacombe, United State circuit court.

The case of Andrew Dozier was called last afternoon and work of getting a jury begun. Allen Myers, of Bryan, was burned, and in the ashes was revealed the horrible sight of a negro woman's remains.

HORRIBLE DEED.

Farmer Kills His Wife, Wounds a Man and Then Suicides.

Kosse, Tex., Oct. 3.—A terrible tragedy was enacted at Stranger, in Falls county, six miles west of here, Monday morning.

Mr. McKinney, aged about 65 years, and an old resident of that place, shot and killed his aged wife at their home. He then went down to a store kept by Paul Norman, a young man recently married, and without saying a word, he commenced shooting at Norman, who fell mortally wounded.

McKinney then went to a vacant house nearby and shot his own brains out, dying instantly.

Mr. McKinney has a grown son who owns a store near Norman's, who went at once to his father's house to tell his mother of the shooting at the store, and found her dead in the kitchen on the floor shot in several places.

No one witnessed the killing of his wife, but several were in Norman's store when McKinney did the shooting there.

No one knows any cause for the tragedy. That he lost his reason is almost sure.

McKinney has several married children.

Niemeyer Cases Settled.

Little Rock, Oct. 3.—The litigation between the United States and Messrs. A. S. and Charles Niemeyer, the well known mill men of St. Louis and Arkansas, who were charged with cutting timber on public lands, has been amicably adjusted. The court upon further consideration of the matter, remitted all sentence of punishment. A. J. Niemeyer's connection with the suit rose solely from the fact that he was president of the lumber company, which it is claimed had committed depredations on the public lands in Hot Springs county. Mr. Niemeyer's residence is in St. Louis. He had no active connection with the operation of the plant. The employees of the company were proceeding strictly in accordance with advice which had been received from the company's attorney, who for 12 years has been their legal adviser.

The circulation secured by lawful money amounted to $55,075,955, an increase for the year of $5,675,068, an increase for the month of $77,512.

The amount of United States registered bonds on deposit to secure circulating notes was $231,515,510, and to secure public deposits $70,364,940.

Church Burned by Incendiaries.

Richland, Mo., Oct. 3.—For some months there has been more or less dissension in the Baptist church here over the proposed removal of the building to a more eligible location. Sunday afternoon a meeting was held, and by a vote it was determined to erect a new building upon a lot which certain members had purchased when the removal matter first came up. Sunday night services were held there, but there was no fire. Sunday morning the structure, with its organ and all other furnishings, was found in ashes. An empty coal oil can was found at the rear of the building. There was no insurance. Efforts will be made to learn the identity of the incendiary.

One Case at Jackson.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 3.—The state board of health issued the following official bulletin Monday night:

A Soap Talk!

DO YOU KNOW how to judge a pure soap? A soap to be just right must leave the skin as before using, and to do this it must be neutral—no excess of alkali. We have made soaps, especially toilet and medicinal, a study, so you take no risk in buying them of me—no higher than elsewhere. We have just received a new stock of delightful soaps, including Crushed Roses, Crushed Lillies, Crushed Lilacs, Crushed Violets and the well-known La Tosca. These goods are the very best, and cannot help please the most fastidious. Come see me when you need SOAP.

We do not try to impress the public how cheap we can prepare a prescription; rather how well, how true, how accurate. Our prices please too. Bring them to me and the results will bring you back again.

FILIPINO APPEAL.

They Give Their Objections to Being Governed by United States.

Manila, Oct. 3.—General Alejandrino the head of the Filipino military committee, now conferring with General Otis, said in an interview with the Herald, correspondent:

"Our government is willing to accept a protectorate under the United States.
We fought Spain because we did not wish longer to be a colony. A colonial government under American rule would be worse than the Spanish, because you know nothing about governing colonies.
We do not want to be experimented on for a century while you learn how.
With England it would be another matter.

"You are another race and not in sympathy with us. We know how to rule our own people. We do not understand why your powerful nation wants to crush us like insects. You can conquer us because you are rich and our soldiers cannot fight successfully against yours.

"We want an honorable peace, but we will fight until death for our institutions.

"We know every military move that you make and get every day the local American newspapers. We know what the United States papers say. We believe that a few men whom you call politicians are waging this war and that the people of the United States will change soon in our favor.

"Admiral Dewey promised me in Hong Kong that at the termination of the war with Spain the Filipinos would be given their independence. Dewey was our best friend, but we understand now that he will not be permitted to keep his word with us.

"We do not understand why General Otis refuses to recognize our government, unless he is afraid that the other foreign powers will then recognize us."

In an hour's interview with the commission they gave many evidences of their purpose to make efforts to secure recognition as a nation before making any attempt at treating for peace.

They also showed much depression over their complete failure in the battles with American troops and also full recognition of the fact that if the campaign against them is prosecuted vigorously by Otis it must mean their utter defeat.

FIGHTING REBELS.

Filipinos Cut Telegraph Line Between Bacolor and Manila.

New York, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Manila says:

The insurgents have cut the telegraph line between Bacolor and Manila and this message from Manila had to be sent through by water. The rebels made upon Bacolor and the fighting lasted until dark. Gen. Grant conducted the operation of the American forces in person on the firing line.

The Filipinos first cut the telegraph wires running from Bacolor to Imus and ambushed the American control, consisting of eight men. A signal sergeant was killed and two other Americans were wounded.

The little band was reinforced by a company of the Fourteenth infantry and three companies of the Fourth, who were hurriedly sent out from Imus and fought their way through along on the road to the relief.

The rebels were fighting from across a deep river 50 yards wide. Eight men in all of the American troops had been wounded up to that time and two had been killed. An advance will be made on the insurgents.

Trouble With Insurgents.

Manila, Oct. 3.—The Fourth infantry regiment, Major Price commanding, has had a series of encounters with the insurgents about Imus since Saturday.
The natives were led, it is supposed, by a former mayor of Imus and made a general attack upon the American lines from Imus to Bacolor. A captain and corporal of the American forces was killed and eight men wounded.

Ben Parker's Secretly Moving.

New York, Oct. 3.—A dispatch to The World says it is learned on reliable authority that Captain Ben Parker, commander of Emperor William's yacht Meteor, is now in New York, incognito.
He sailed from here on the liner New York on her last trip, traveling under an assumed name, and landed last Saturday.

His presence was carefully concealed from the other passengers. Just what his purpose is, cannot be stated, but the surmise is that he will advise with the captains of the Shamrock and give them the benefit of his wide experience as one of Europe's best known and most successful sailing masters.

An Uncle of Dewey Dead.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 3.—H. H. Dewey, of Sheffield, Ills., uncle of Admiral Dewey, died Sunday. His son thinks excitement over the admiral's honors hastened his death.

Exacting War News.

ban, Natal, announces the Boers expected to take the aggressive at once.
Most alarming rumors are afloat there respecting their intentions.

Washington, Oct. 3.—On Dewey's trip from New York he told the gentlemen that he will accept the home being subscribed for.
